CAPTURING THE SPIRIT OF THE

CAROLINAS

A GALLERY OF ARTISTS

DEBORAH CAVENAUGH

—a prolific artist, whose colorful, often whimsical, paintings are well known in the Wilmington area, has a definite domestic tone in her work. “The essence of all my paintings,” she says, “is the concept of that thing we call home and family.” Deborah Cavenaugh chooses many local scenes to portray in her artwork as well as lots of children and animals. She was chosen as the artist for the official poster of Azalea Festival 2000, one of the most popular posters ever.
